Dear Mr. Eaton:

This is a final response to your 15 August 2018 appeal to the Agency Release Panel (ARP) regarding your request for records according to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

The ARP carefully considered your petition and determined that the appeal should be denied in full. As the Executive Secretary of the ARP, I am the CIA official responsible for informing you of the appellate determination, described more fully in what follows.

The ARP upheld the initial determination of no records located. The Agency conducted a reasonable search calculated to uncover material responsive to the request and was unable to locate any responsive records.

In accordance with the provisions of the FOIA, you have the right to seek judicial review of this determination in federal district court. Alternatively, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies. Using services offered by OGIS does not affect your right to pursue litigation. For more information, including how to contact OGIS, please consult its website at http://ogis/archives.gov.

Sincerely,
